

Announcing the second season of the Utah Young Composers Project directed by Devin Maxwell and presented by the Utah Youth Orchestra and Ensembles program!

The Utah Young Composers Project is the first of its kind in Utah and is open to any students under the age of 18 that currently reside in Utah and are interested in composing original music for orchestra. Participants of the program may attend four workshops led by composer Devin Maxwell that will tackle the creative, aesthetic, and practical issues of writing original compositions for full orchestra. Following the workshops, the Utah Youth Orchestras will read and record selected original compositions made by attendees of Utah Young Composers Project!

2/25- Workshop 1:
Program Overview and Basic Approaches to Orchestral Composition

3/25 - Workshop 2:
Writing for Strings and Percussion

4/22 - Workshop 3:
Writing for Winds and Brass

5/13 - Workshop 4:
Score Revision and Layout

6/2, 6/3 - Readings and Recordings:
Student Composition Readings and Recordings by the Utah Youth Orchestras!